Terms

Liability: Borrower (End user) of video program(s) is liable for lost or damaged videos while videos are in borrower's possession or control.

Returning Videos: All videos must be returned within the allotted time via a service that provides means for tracing shipments as well as proof of delivery. Additionally, videos shall be insured in transit for $400 each to ensure replacement cost is covered in case of loss or damage en route. FirstComp will provide shipping as follows, a prepaid mailing label will be provided either enclosed with the video program(s) or sent via email on or about the listed viewing date for each video. Duplicate labels will be provided when necessary and possible. It is the responsibility of the end user to notify FirstComp if a label is not received in a timely manner.

Late Fees: Any video program that is not returned to NSC by 5:00 PM Central Time on or before its due date will be considered late. A late fee of up to $5.00 per day, per video may be imposed up to the replacement cost of the video or $400, whichever is less. Frequent late returns may also lead to a suspension or revocation of video rental privileges.

Extended Use: Videos that you wish to borrow for longer than the standard fourteen (14) day period may be extended at the discretion of FirstComp and NSC. If you wish to extend a rental, please notify FirstComp at least three (3) business days prior to the listed due date for the video you wish to extend. Extensions may not be available depending on availability of each particular program.
